

Studio Theatre Perth is thrilled to announce that we will be continuing our relationship with our existing ticketing partner

And its new operators Rob and Kris Riendeau (publishers of Ottawa Valley's the Humm magazine)

Most Perth peeps know that after successfully running the Perth-based ticketing outlet for the past ten years, the previous owner, Ann Hawthorne, decided that she was ready to step back.

Ann will be missed, with her efficient and "always accommodating" service, her upbeat manner and the warm reception you were guaranteed when picking up your event tickets at Matheson House on Gore Street. Our Studio Theatre volunteer staff and patrons wish her good luck in her next "adventure."

Tickets Please will continue to operate under the same name and with the same phone number (613-485-6434). However, the Matheson House pick up will no longer be available. Tickets can be picked up at the Studio Theatre Box Office an hour prior to the performance. Some of our events may have preassigned seating available online.

Tickets will still be available at the Studio Theatre Box Office, but you may see some new faces behind the desk. Our long-time, very efficient and dedicated Box Office Manager, Diane Gunning, has resigned from the position. We will certainly miss her smiling face. Although there are big shoes to fill, we are pleased to welcome Katherine Hooton as our new Box Office Manager, who, I'm sure, will be more than up to the task.

So, please check out the new Tickets Please and their newly updated website at ticketsplease.ca for all events coming to the Studio Theatre, Perth and the Ottawa Valley area!

And, if you haven't already, why not sign on for their weekly newsletter to get a glimpse of community happenings in and around where you live.
